

Let Your Light Shine

MT. 5.13-16

"You are the salt of the earth...the light of the world." Mt. 5.13,14

Review the Sermon

Read Mt. 5.13-16.

What is the importance of good works in relation to the gospel that teaches us we are not saved by our works?

How is it possible to be salt and light in an evil world without becoming like the evil world?

How does our relationship to God as Father define authentic goodness in our lives?

Why is true compassion so important in how we shine as lights in the midst of evil?

Assess your Life

What importance have you placed on seeing God's righteousness working in and through you?

Would co-workers and neighbors be surprised if they knew you were a Christian disciple? Or would those who observe you in daily life say you are salt and light in your influence?

What obstacles stand in the way of you clearly displaying God’s work of grace in your life?

Apply the Truth

What are some ways you could improve how you shine as a gospel-light in your daily environment?

How can you ensure you are the “influencer” (for God’s glory) and not the “influenced” as you interact with unbelievers?

What can you do to overcome the obstacles holding you back from clearly shining the light of the gospel through your words and actions?

Commit this Week

How will you commit this week to influencing your surroundings for God’s glory?

“In the same way, let your light shine before others, so that they may see your good works and give glory to your Father who is in heaven.” Mt. 5.16
