

A Warning and Calling

MT. 13:47-52

*“Again, the kingdom of heaven is like a net that was thrown into the sea and gathered fish of every kind. When it was full, men drew it ashore and sat down and sorted the good into containers but threw away the bad.”
(Matthew 13:47–48, ESV)*

Review the Sermon

Read Mt. 13:47-52.

Why is it important that Christians do not ignore or minimize the doctrine of Hell?

Why does Jesus compare disciples to scribes trained for the kingdom of heaven?

What is the significance of disciples dispensing treasures that are both new and old?

Assess your Life

Have you ever had to share bad news or have a difficult conversation with someone you love? What did you fear most about the outcome?

How has the doctrine of Hell impacted your life?

What is your greatest challenge in sharing the gospel with others?

Apply the Truth

How can you pray more effectively about the lost people around you and your unafraid witness?

What kind of training or study would help you to be more effective and bolder in your witness?

What simple steps could you take now to start making more disciples for the kingdom?

Commit this Week

Will you commit to prayer and preparation to be more effective in sharing the treasure of the gospel with the people around you?

“And he said to them, “Therefore every scribe who has been trained for the kingdom of heaven is like a master of a house, who brings out of his treasure what is new and what is old.” (Matthew 13:52, ESV)
