

Mutual Humility

MATTHEW 18:1-4

“Truly, I say to you, unless you turn and become like children, you will never enter the kingdom of heaven.” (Matthew 18:3, ESV)

Review the Sermon

Read Mt. 18:1-4.

Why did the disciples likely ask the question about “the greatest in the kingdom” in the first place?

---

---

What does Jesus imply about us when he tells us to “turn” and humble ourselves?

---

---

In what way does Jesus call us to become like a child?

---

---

Assess your Life

What would you say has been the general cause of most relationship issues in your experience? (use any forms of relationship for reference – marriage, family, siblings, church, etc.)

---

---

Where have you seen mutual humility demonstrated in your relationships or in others close to you?

---

---

What areas of your life challenge you in setting aside your own interests to serve others?

---

---

Apply the Truth

---

What deliberate steps can you take to humble yourself in specific relationship scenarios?

---

---

How will you take the lead in showing humility rather than waiting for the other person?

---

---

How can you ensure that humility is the foundation of your home and community?

---

---

Commit this Week

---

Will you commit to deliberately humbling yourself, giving up selfish ambitions, and serving others close to you for the glory of God?

---

---

---

"Whoever humbles himself like this child is the greatest in the kingdom of heaven." (Matthew 18:4, ESV)
