

The End of the Elect

MT. 24:15-31

Mt 24:24^(ESV) 24For false christs and false prophets will arise and perform great signs and wonders, so as to lead astray, if possible, even the elect.

Review the Sermon

Read Mt. 24:15-31.

What does Scripture mean when God’s people are described as his “elect”?

Why does Jesus repeat this description of “God’s elect” in the context of devastating times?

In what ways will God preserve his chosen people in dark circumstances?

Assess your Life

Do you struggle with the biblical teaching that God has chosen those he graciously saves? Why or why not?

Which area of vulnerability concerns you the most: physical, spiritual, or eternal?

How does the knowledge that you are a chosen child of God motivate you?

Apply the Truth

What are some current physical needs you have for God to take care of?

How can you be better spiritually fortified against the distractions of false messiahs and false teachers?

What must change for you to keep your eternal destiny in view as you live your life?

Commit this Week

Will you commit to embracing your identity as a chosen child of God and live every moment in total surrender to his care for you?

Mt 24:31^(ESV) ³¹And he will send out his angels with a loud trumpet call, and they will gather his elect from the four winds, from one end of heaven to the other.
