

A New Year for a New Generation

PSALM 78

"We will not hide them from their children, but tell to the coming generation the glorious deeds of the Lord, and his might, and the wonders that he has done." (Psalm 78:4, ESV)

Review the Sermon

Read Ps. 78:1-8.

Why does Asaph say it is important for the God's people to know their history?

What was the result of Israel forgetting their history?

How does knowing history change the way we think and act?

Assess your Life

Have you ever repeated a failure or sin due to forgetting the past?

What are some ways you intentionally keep your memory of God's faithfulness fresh?

How have stories of God's faithfulness been passed on to you by previous generations?

Apply the Truth

Name some strategies for teaching God's faithfulness to children in the home.

How can the church step in to fill gaps (teaching children) where there is need in the home?

How can discipleship groups (life groups, etc.) ensure a constant remembrance of God's faithfulness, and hold each other accountable to respond in faith?

Commit this Week

Will you commit to remembering God's faithfulness, reforming your thinking, and responding in absolute obedience to God's will?

"so that they should set their hope in God and not forget the works of God, but keep his commandments;" (Psalm 78:7, ESV)
