

Faithful or Fruitless?

MATTHEW 24:45-51

“Who then is the faithful and wise servant, whom his master has set over his household, to give them their food at the proper time?” (Matthew 24:45, ESV)

Review the Sermon

Read Mt. 24:45-51.

Why does Jesus begin this parable with a question?

What were the good qualities of the faithful servant that should be imitated?

Describe the evil characteristics of the wicked servant that must be rejected.

Assess your Life

Are your priorities based on your own needs and desires? Or are your priorities centered on God’s purposes?

Do you consider the needs of others above your own interests?

Do you manage your possessions as though they are loaned to you by God to benefit others?

Apply the Truth

Jesus referred to giving food “at the proper time”. What are some ways you believe timing is important in how you minister to others?

How can you avoid selfish motives?

If serving faithfully and selflessly is the more difficult path, what can you do to be consistent until the Lord returns?

Commit this Week

Will you commit this week to serving others for their benefit and God’s glory?

“Truly, I say to you, he will set him over all his possessions.” (Matthew 24:47, ESV)
