

Watching Defines Living

MATTHEW 25:1-13

*"Watch therefore, for you know neither the day nor the hour."
(Matthew 25:13, ESV)*

Review the Sermon

Read Mt. 25:1-13.

How did the watchfulness of the wise bridesmaids affect the way they prepared for the wedding procession?

What was the ultimate reason for the foolish bridesmaids' lack of preparation?

What lessons can be learned from the wise bridesmaids' decision to not share their oil with the other girls?

Assess your Life

What areas of your life are marked by poor decision-making that fails to honor God?

Who would you hold responsible for going a wrong direction in the past? What should be done about this responsibility now?

How much does your walk with God motivate your pursuit of holiness?

Apply the Truth

How can you turn poor decision-making into wise choices that prepare you for Jesus' return?

What areas of your life require you to step up and take personal responsibility? What is the next step you must take?

How can you help others develop a deeper relationship with Christ and make wise life choices?

Commit this Week

Will you commit this week to reflecting on and resetting the course of your life based on your relationship with Jesus Christ?

*"Afterward the other virgins came also, saying, 'Lord, lord, open to us.'
But he answered, 'Truly, I say to you, I do not know you.'" (Matthew 25:11-12, ESV)*
