

Resurrection Witnesses

MATTHEW 28:1-20

"He is not here, for he has risen, as he said. Come, see the place where he lay." (Matthew 28:6, ESV)

Review the Sermon

Read Mt. 28:1-20.

Why would Jesus select unlikely witnesses to carry the message of his Resurrection?

---

---

Why is experience vital to being a witness?

---

---

What were the guards missing in their experience of the Resurrection?

---

---

---

Assess your Life

Where have you experienced God's resurrection power in your own life?

---

---

How has the Resurrection helped you to accept the prospect of your own mortality?

---

---

Are there any areas of temptation you fear could lead you away from faithful Christian witness?

---

---

---

Apply the Truth

---

How can you be more effective in sharing your personal testimony of God's resurrection power in your life?

---

How can you become more confidently aware of Jesus' absolute power and enduring presence?

---

---

Who is in your life that needs discipling, that you could begin to minister to?

---

---

---

Commit this Week

---

Will you intentionally recognize God's resurrection power in your life, and share it with others as you work with fellow witnesses to make disciples for God's glory?

---

---

---

---

"And Jesus came and said to them, "All authority in heaven and on earth has been given to me. Go therefore and make disciples of all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit, teaching them to observe all that I have commanded you. And behold, I am with you always, to the end of the age." (Matthew 28:18–20, ESV)
