

Integrity in Confusing Times

PROVERBS 5

“Let your fountain be blessed, and rejoice in the wife of your youth,” (Proverbs 5:18, ESV)

Review the Sermon

Read Proverbs 5:1-23.

Why would sexual integrity be the first application of the warnings in Proverbs 4 about guarding your heart, speech, eyes, and feet?

---

---

According to the writer, why is sexual sin so costly?

---

---

What are some safeguards offered in the text for maintaining sexual integrity?

---

---

---

Assess your Life

How has culture affected or confused your view of sexual sin?

---

---

What safeguards have you placed on your marriage or your personal life to flee sexual immorality?

---

---

How does the reality that your “ways are before the eyes of the Lord” (v21) affect your thinking and actions?

---

---

---

Apply the Truth

---

What can your church family do to promote sexual integrity with its members?

---

---

How can the local church promote sexual integrity in the general culture? What areas of culture has your church family been called to where these principles can be lived out?

---

---

How can your church community minister to those who are entrapped in sexual sin?

---

---

Commit this Week

---

Will you commit this week to fleeing sexual immorality in every form and promoting sexual integrity in a confused culture?

---

---

---

"For a man's ways are before the eyes of the Lord, and he ponders all his paths." (Proverbs 5:21, ESV)
